On November 8, 2006, the Board of Supervisors approved a reward offer of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the murder of Janet Altamirano and shooting of Nadina Mercado. The reward offer for this heinous crime was last extended on February 6, 2007, but will expire on May 7, 2007.

On Saturday, November 4, 2006, in the 2100 block of East 117th Streeter in the Willowbrook area of Los Angeles Janet Altamirano, age 12, was shot and later died at St. Francis hospital. Nadina Mercado, age 15, was also shot and suffered minor wounds.

The shooting started when detectives from the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau and Compton task force served a search warrant at a residence in the area. Deputies came under gunfire from one or more suspects, who fired an unknown-type assault rifle from across the street.
